

SHOULDHAM LADYBIRDS - FORTHCOMING EVENTS 2018

Saturday 6th October: Autumn Craft Fair being held in Shouldham Bowls Club:

10am - 4pm: Various "different" stalls selling their goods: including Pippa's Pantry and if you have not heard or sampled Pippa's Pantry home baking and other delicious delights then now is the time to come along and sample them. The Ladybirds will be making teas and coffees.

Tuesday 16 October: Kathy Hipperson has been invited along to the Village Hall: 8pm. Kathy is giving a talk on "Norfolk Suffragettes".

Tuesday 20 November is a Ladybirds' meeting being held in Shouldham Bowls Club: 7:45. This is a general meeting to chat about forthcoming events – so please do come along and contribute to some ideas and suggestions. It will be nice and cosy in the Bowls Club and we can warm up with a "light" refreshment there will be teas / coffees and cake and for those that would like to partake - the bar will be open!

Tuesday 27 November: Ladybirds' Charity Bingo Evening: Shouldham Bowls Club: Doors open 6:30pm. More information to follow. Looking for some suggestions as to the local charity we can donate to: The Magpie Centre: Riding for the Disabled / Driving Miss Daisy are just a couple of suggestions but do please put forward your ideas and suggestions.
